

Patsy, Fire Mutt, Is Psychic and Also a Scrapper

New Mascot of Hook and Ladder No. 1 Is a Discriminating Epicure Too.

Dewey, the tiny dog with the huge appetite, which was the pet of the firemen at Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, in Duane Street, has been succeeded by Patsy.

Patsy has two claims to fame. First, he is psychic.

Second, he'll eat only if his food is offered with mustard.

Patsy proved this morning, after being washed with gasoline by Fireman James Mulvaney to be a white, wire-haired pup of no absolutely determinate ethnic group, but blue-eyed and a reticent nose led to the belief that he belongs to the Celtic branch of the canine race. That may account for his psychic qualities, which were demonstrated the other night when two strange firemen visited Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.

Patsy sat up a bowl that disturbed the boys sleeping upstairs and then began snoring and snoring. Every one was startled by Patsy's strange behavior, which seemed directed at one of the visitors.

"Patsy's got something on you," commented Fireman John Gleason. "Maybe I've got something on me," the visitor responded, reaching into his pocket and drawing forth a package.

Patsy hereupon flew into a rage, but the mystery was explained. Patsy became quiet when the package was thrown away. It had contained catnip.

Mrs. Emma Murphy, the young mascot of Hook and Ladder No. 1, discovered soon after Patsy's arrival that he would eat nothing except mustard covered food, his favorite dish being French bread with English mustard. His predecessor, Dewey, who was killed going to a fire, on the other hand ate everything but mustard.

Patsy, though only two months old, chased a bulldog three times his size yesterday and Firemen Joe Krueger, Joe Dullio, Walter Murphy and John Kelly, who are fight fans, are proud of him, but Mulvaney and Gleason, who want Patsy to make a good showing at inspection in April, frown at the fighting now.

"We're going to wash Patsy twice a week in gasoline to get him thoroughly clean by inspection time," said Mulvaney.

"Also," added Gleason, who reads "David Harum," "we're going to get him a flea so he'll have something to think about."

Hints for your Home

ON chilly mornings when you want heat quickly, light an oil heater. It radiates comfortable heat faster than any other stove—without odor—and you can set it anywhere.

A limited supply of Miller Heaters is here at $8 each.

LEWIS & CONGER
45th STREET AND SIXTH AVE.
NEW YORK

IT'S AXIOMATIC

that children of any age thrive well on

Scott's Emulsion

It is nourishment abundant in strength-giving and growth-promoting substances.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N.J.

ALSO MAKERS OF

KI-MOIDS

(Tablets or Granules)

FOR INDIGESTION

20-124

Notice to Advertisers

Display advertising type copy and release orders for either the New York Evening World or The Evening World, if received after 1 P. M. the day preceding publication, can be inserted only at special rates and in order of receipt at the office. Copy for insertion must be made by 1 P. M. the day preceding publication. Display advertising type copy for the Evening World must be received by 1 P. M. the day preceding publication and release must be received by 1 P. M. the day preceding publication. Copy for insertion must be made by 1 P. M. the day preceding publication. Display advertising type copy for the Evening World must be received by 1 P. M. the day preceding publication and release must be received by 1 P. M. the day preceding publication. Copy for insertion must be made by 1 P. M. the day preceding publication.

THE WORLD

March 4, 1789

MARKED the Inauguration of George Washington, as the first President of the United States. Thirty-seven years later in February, 1826, Messrs. Lord & Taylor opened the doors of their store to the people of New York.

Ninety-five years ago it was a humble shop at 47 Catherine Street. To-day this large and beautiful store in the center of the busiest, most fashionable shopping district in New York, has arranged, "A History Window" of particular significance and interest at this time.

Your Easter Hat!

AH yes, it will be quite the most becoming you have ever worn, for you may choose it from a wealth of charming styles.

There's a lovely little hat of soft silk, trimmed with decorative flowers of the same material. It is one of those hats that can be worn on many occasions and always with the feeling of correctness. And you may have it in any color.

New and fascinating is the material of the hat sketched. A maline horse-hair with metal scroll. The silken fringe gives that sweeping line so smart in the season's best millinery.

Prices are moderate—

$10 to $25

FOURTH FLOOR

Every Sub-Deb Wants

A Taffeta Frock

SHE envies the girl at Dancing School or Matinee who is wearing "that darling brown taffeta", for her heart is set on just such a frock.

Fancy her delight when she acquires a taffeta frock even crisper and more original than the one she coveted. It is embroidered with wool in soft harmonizing colors, and is brown or navy according to her taste.

Sizes 8 to 14 $18.50

Sizes 12 to 16 $25.00

FOURTH FLOOR

Have You Ever Worn

—one of these Union Suits, with Glove Silk top and lower part of hile? They're very comfortable, with that unique combination of silkiness and warmth that is hard to find. $1.75

And on top of that of course you will wear a Glove Silk Envelope Chemise, chastely trimmed with hemstitching and satin. $3.95

GROUND FLOOR

The Bubble Book Party

To Be Held in Our "Toyland"—Seventh Floor

THIS Saturday—11:15 A.M. and 3 P.M.

All children invited. Don't miss it. This is a delightful opportunity to see all your friends from Mother Goose-land.

Lord & Taylor

Special—Misses' Easter Suits $45

Tricotine in Navy, Gray and Rookie—Sizes 14 to 20 Years

FOUR little Suits for Spring make their best bow—they've planned to sell themselves to you on sight! One of them was surely made for you as you will discover when you have seen their smart lines and air of youthful grace.

The careful hand finishing of these man-tailored Suits is the thing you would not expect to find this season at the very moderate price quoted.

$45

Tricotine of this fine quality and lustrous Radium linings such as these have been recently seen only in far more expensive suits. The values they represent are hard to match.

THIRD FLOOR

Five Hundred Hand-Made Blouses

THERE'S something about the little, hand-set stitches and exquisite drawn work that particularly appeals to a woman. The styles are simple, as befits the blouses of this season. They have low neck and long-sleeves with dainty cuffs, especially in keeping with their air of tailored smartness.

There are hundreds of them for your choice! A very snow-storm of fresh and lovely Blouses. And they're priced exceptionally low.

$3.95 and $5

THIRD FLOOR

Gay Sweaters of Soft, Chiffon Alpaca

JOLLY little Sweaters they are to wear on crisp Spring days, Tuxedo models, with braided girdles and jaunty pockets, that you may slip over your lingerie blouse or wear to blend with the color of your new sport skirt. They are wonderfully low priced.

$12

Jade, Rose, Turquoise, Tan, Yellow, Navy, Black, White

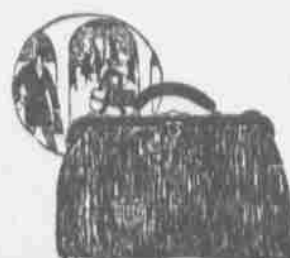

THIRD FLOOR

An Overnight Bag At $11.50

YES, it is an amazingly low price—lower than its original wholesale cost, to be exact—and when you see these fine bags you will appreciate the value, even more than you can in reading about them. For they are made of genuine cowhide, and the workmanship is as neat and careful as any we have seen in bags at much higher prices.

You have probably been needing just this kind of bag for some time. It is the most convenient size for so many uses, because it is easy to carry and yet surprisingly obliging in its roominess.

Sizes: 14—15—16 inches

GROUND FLOOR

Women's Easter Suits of Tricotine, Poiret Twill and Imported Tweeds

YOU will probably go shopping tomorrow for the Suit of Suits for Easter—the one that charms you most from all the styles. In our big, day-lighted section of Women's Suits on the Third Floor you will find a remarkably wide choice and surprisingly moderate prices.

Plain-tailored, braid bound styles with shoe string belts. The simple lines and silk-stitched, trim effects you'll like. Or sport styles of imported Tweeds for town or country, in mixtures of Tan, Blue or Purple.

$55

THIRD FLOOR

New Wrap-Coats for Spring

$65

YOU'LL delight in the velvety softness of the new pile fabrics shown in these lovely Wraps. Collars that snuggle becomingly against your face, flowing lines of simple drapery that flatter your figure in their graceful sweep.

Feather-light, with soft silk lining, they are what is wanted to slip over your fluffy, frilly

Frocks—and you'll find this especial model of Peruvia and Andria Cloth, with its simple shawl collar, one of the most becoming styles of the season, as well as a conspicuously fine value.

They are shown in the new Spring shades. Camel's Hair Polo Cloth Coats Silk-Lined Throughout $50

The ideal coat for general serviceability.

THIRD FLOOR

Two Straps

And a Lovely Shade of Grey

FOR the newest Pumps are not satisfied with a single strap. They have added a second, just by way of being original, and the effect is altogether charming.

Grey oose lends itself particularly well to this style, with patent leather running a close second for popularity.

Medium high French heels are those chosen by this dainty Spring shoe.

$14.75

SECOND FLOOR

Lord & Taylor
Pearls

THERE is no more eloquent expression of a woman's taste than the jewels she wears. In her choice of adornment for reception or opera one may read her instinct for the appropriate, her appreciation of the beautiful.

If she wears a strand of evenly matched pearls one knows that the two have met in a matchless harmony.

$20 to $400 the strand

GROUND FLOOR

Made in France

HER hands were the thing you noticed first, and you tried to decide why they made such an impression on you.

Suddenly you knew—it was the gloves she wore. The wonderful smoothness of fit, the fine quality of the suede that fashioned them. Was it, after all, the hands or rather the gloves that attracted you?

Price $3.50

GROUND FLOOR

Frilly Vests

WHAT woman doesn't demand them in this day of smart tailors? And if they take the form of soft net guimpes, so much the better.

The particular guimpes in question have exquisite touches of hand embroidery and Val lace that add greatly to the loveliness of the cream colored net.

They formerly sold for a much higher price, but they are now marked at $3.50

GROUND FLOOR

Dotted Veils

Are Subtly Flattering

THAT is why so many women choose them rather than any other kind of Veils. Then too, one may find just the dots that carry out a touch of color in suit or frock.

Imported Chenille dot veiling is shown in solid colors or in combinations of the newest shades.

75c a yard

GROUND FLOOR

Furs Shall Be Gray

THAT is the ultimatum for this season, and woe betide the woman who disregards it, provided she would have her costume as modish as a soft little Fur Scarf can make it.

Having accepted the color, she may choose the fur to suit her fancy.

Mole fancy Tie Scarfs $19.50

Natural Squirrel Tie Scarfs $29.50

Gray Fox Animal Shaped Scarfs $69.50

FOURTH FLOOR

The Way Your Gown Fits

Depends Largely On the Corset You Wear

AND it is easy enough to find the one particularly suited to your figure if you choose an Elente.

Is it the dainty little hip confiner—scarcely more than a strip of pink satin with occasional inserts of elastic, and a frivolous ruffle of lace around the bottom?

Or the lightly boned model of broche with neat lacing below the front steel and a Frenchy trimming of pale blue ribbon and lace around the top? This model is made for the average figure.

$5.50

SECOND FLOOR